

Test Project

Simple web application which takes data from the server and displays the data in a table and a chart.

The server reads data from a CSV file stored at a specific location and sends it to the webapp. Use attached csv file for the data and the mockup below for the table and chart. The X Axis for the chart is "Words" and y axes are "Score" and "Avg Score".

